

Programme subject to change. ST = Soundings Theatre, OR = Oceania Room.

DAY ONE		WEDNESDAY 24 March
8:00am - 9:30am	Registration, Tea and coffee (OR)
8:45am - 9:00am	Mihi whakatau and welcoming address
9:00am - 9:40am	Opening Address - (ST) Geoff Bascand, Government Statistician, Statistics New Zealand
9:40am - 10:20am	Keynote speaker tbc
10:20am - 10:50am	Morning Tea (OR)
10:50am - 12:00pm	Panel Discussion – (ST) Making the most of Official Statistics in challenging times
12:00pm - 1:00pm	Lunch (OR)
Concurrent	Stream 1 - Where to next?	Stream 2 - Working Smarter	Stream 3 - Real Life
1:00pm - 1:40pm	1.1 Applicability of European and OECD environment-related concepts and indicators for New Zealand's agriculture and forestry Susanne von Muenchhausen Institute for Rural Development Research (IfLS), Frankfurt, Germany	2.1 Digital Continuity Action Plan – Collaborative Long-term Information and Data Management across the New Zealand Public Sector Stephen Clarke Archives New Zealand	3.1 Getting more out of a survey – case of the Adult Literacy and Life Skills (ALL) survey David Earle, Paul Satherley Ministry of Education
1:40pm - 2:20pm	1.2 New developments in geospatial data visualisation and analysis at Statistics New Zealand John Bryant and Rosemary Goodyear Statistics New Zealand The new dataset in town: the New Zealand General Social Survey Conal Smith, Statistics New Zealand	2.2 Using data to better match industry demand with tertiary education and training supply - a practical tool Jenny Connor Industry Training Federation	3.2 Official Statistics and policy – the Economic Growth Agenda and Taskforce 2025 Speaker tbc
2:20pm - 3:10pm	Panel discussion – (ST) Ethnicity in official statistics
3:10pm – 3:40pm	Afternoon Tea (OR)
Concurrent	Stream 1 - Where to next?	Stream 2 - Working Smarter	Stream 3 - Real Life
3:40pm – 4:20pm	1.3 Making the OSS work for you including a case study from Bruce Bassett from the Ministry of Tourism case study	2.3 Reporting national environmental statistics: Transforming apples into oranges Justine Daw Ministry for the Environment	3.3 The Invisible made Visible: Application of the Non-profit Institutions Satellite Account: 2004 by the non-profit sector, government and business James King Office of the Community and Voluntary Sector
4.20pm – 5.00pm	Plenary (ST) Integration of administrative business microdata – working with the longitudinal business database and other business datasets

5:00pm - 7:30pm Networking Function (OR)

Programme subject to change. ST = Soundings Theatre, OR = Oceania Room.

DAY TWO		THURSDAY 25 March
8:00am - 9:00am	Tea and coffee (OR)
9:00am - 9:40am	Keynote speaker tbc
Concurrent	Stream 1- Where to next?	Stream 2 - Working Smarter	Stream 3 - Real Life
9:40am - 10:20am	1.4 Improving Securities Statistics – how the development of a security by security database can help improve the quality of New Zealand’s macroeconomic statistics Rochelle Barrow Reserve Bank of New Zealand	2.4 The New Zealand Knowledge Economy Simon Brown Department of Labour	3.4 Informing the Debate on Population Ageing in New Zealand Mansoor Khawaja Statistics New Zealand
10:20am - 10:50am	Morning Tea (OR)
Concurrent	Stream 1 - Where to next?	Stream 2 - Working Smarter	Stream 3 - Real Life
10:50am - 11:30am	1.5 Session tbc	2.5 Exploring the potential for new family statistics and new family transitions research drawing on the Household Labour Force Survey Moira Wilson Ministry of Social Development/Statistics New Zealand	3.5 Geo-visualisation and policy: exploring the links Philip S. Morrison and Mairead DeRoiste Victoria University of Wellington Mark Gahegan University of Auckland An Official Statistics Research project
11:30am - 12:30pm	1.6 Employment Outcomes of Tertiary Education (EOTE) Part 1: What do students earn after their tertiary education? David Scott Ministry of Education Part 2: An analysis of industry training Sarah Crichton Department of Labour	2.6 Session tbc	3.6 Why Census Matters Key users of census data discuss its use with a representative of the 2011 Census
12:30pm - 1:20pm	Lunch (OR)
1:20pm – 1.50pm	Plenary - (ST) Len Cook, Brian Pink – Beyond GDP: Measuring Progress in the 21st Century

Programme subject to change. ST = Soundings Theatre, OR = Oceania Room.

DAY TWO (cont.)	THURSDAY 25 March
Concurrent	Stream 1 - Where to next?	Stream 2 - Working Smarter	Stream 3 - Real Life
1:50pm – 2:30pm	1.7 Does the current New Zealand case definition of serious non-fatal injuries miss a material number of serious injury cases? Colin Cryer Injury Prevention Research Unit, Dunedin School of Medicine, Otago University	2.7 Publishing of Tax Statistics – Filling the Gap Michael Slyuzberg Inland Revenue The whole is greater than the sum of the parts: Cross agency collaboration in evaluating large scale policy initiatives Katherine Meerman, Valmai Copeland Inland Revenue	3.7 Measuring New Zealand's Progress Using a Sustainable Development Approach: 2008 Speaker tbc Statistics New Zealand
2:30pm - 3:10pm	1.8 Costs of raising children in New Zealand Iris Claus Inland Revenue	2.8 Using islands of data to plan a town centre Kelvin Norgrove, Tony Batistich Strateg.Ease Ltd	3.8 The use of the official statistics in health workforce modelling Nikolai Minko District Health Boards New Zealand
3:10pm - 3:40pm	Afternoon Tea (OR)
3:40pm - 4:40pm	Panel (ST) Where to next – a panel discusses key themes and areas of future work identified during the preceding two days
4:40pm – 4:45pm	Thanks, acknowledgments and farewell Geoff Bascand, Statistics New Zealand		